ABOUT THE FACULTY OF LAW

In its robust academic rigor, the institution has in its short span of time been able to notch excellence in different young minds. The pedagogy that drives them in unravelling the academic quest is demonstrative and Socratic in trait. Often, they are accustomed to modern-day challenges from the different contemporary issues being unveiled and made them juxtapose the theoretical parts of law with its application. The reason for this, students are left to be critical in thinking of the diversified aspect of the issues at hand. The essence of legal writing and its articulation is one of the fundamentals in ascending in the field of law, which in a sense, therefore, is being taken special care of. In the lead of which therefore the institution is driven by faculties who are well experienced and enhanced in enlivening the student's needs with the pragmatic world, in making them train and participate in regular moot court competitions while fostering their interest in legal research and writing. In addition to that other than law, in different co-curricular activities students are encouraged to participate towards developing their personalities and confidence. The department for which regularly organizes different activities such as public speaking, debate competition, article writing competition, etc. Vivid reading, prolific writing and excellent orating are the three sacred stones on which the students are nurtured to become the leaders of their respective and aspiring fields. Inquisitiveness for knowledge and deep learning of law are the fundamentals in making the institution a place of repute and excellence.

ABOUT THE NATIONAL MOOT COURT COMPETITION
