DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

The Department of Commerce creates a stimulating environment for the academic growth of its students and provides them with a thorough understanding of a range of subjects such as business organization, financial accounting, corporate law, economic theory and business communication.

The faculty members of the Department are known for their expertise in finance and organizational behaviour and impart practical knowledge of the discipline in auditing, company law and income tax. Interwoven into teaching practices is the goal of fostering in students a sense of responsibility towards society as well. In line with this emphasis, the classroom space is democratic and one in which differences in opinions is respected. Most importantly, teachers remain available to students at all times.

To foster student learning, several initiatives are taken beyond classroom teaching, these include workshops, talks, paper presentations, field trips, etc.

COMMERCE STREAM

Commerce course is designed to provide students with a wide range of managerial skills and understanding in streams like Banking, Accounts, Insurance, Investments, Finance, Accounting, Taxation and Management. On doing Commerce, an aspirant job seeker can join either the government or the private sector.

After completing Commerce a student is well prepared to sustain as a corporate employee or as an entrepreneur. The student has adequate knowledge of adapting to the changes in the flexible business world, has an in-depth understanding of the business world's market-relevant aspects. On the other hand, if the student chooses to start his/her own business, he/she can run it successfully and professionally without having to pay expert accountants or market consultants.

Most of the employers due to the implementation of GST are preferring fresh Commerce Graduate and Post Graduates. This is because fresh graduates may adapt to the new taxation systems faster than an experienced candidate.

Banking & Finance gives an edge over others: Banking & Finance Degree will help Banking & Finance Companies to choose you over a plain Commerce Degree holder. Specialization in Banking & Finance, apart from a general course study in Commerce has the primary focus on a systematic study of the concepts in the subjects and topics related to Banking & Finance Industry.
